Welcome

Ladies and Gentlemen,

The simulation software Autodesk Moldflow is used by leading manufacturers from all over the world to analyze injection molding processes in order to optimize plastic components and production processes based on the simulation results. With increasing requirements for products of various market segments and new production processes, the demands for the simulation software are increasing as well.

MF Software TR invites you to the 1st CONNECT MENAR! Moldflow® User Meeting where the Moldflow® users from Middle East, North Africa, Russia and Eastern Europe come together in Workinn Hotel, Gebze on 2nd June 2016.

Speeches from market and research will provide detailed information about current simulation possibilities and future development directions of the Autodesk Moldflow® Software. In addition, you have the possibility for personal interaction with other Moldflow users and MF Software staff during the breaks.

We look forward to seeing you at the CONNECT! MENAR - Moldflow® User Meeting
